“ Ms Alton was a saint. My son Matt loved her so much. He had dyslexia, and she gave him a feeling of self worth. She was an angel in disguise. He formed a lasting relationship with her. She got her wings while here on earth. She was a blessing in our life.

“ Jan was a lovely sweet person...she was a caregiver by heart...watched her love and take care of her mother for many many years....taught with her at Washington Elementary for many years...never a student she didn't love and care for and give her best to meet the needs...whatever those needs were, great or small...she cared with her heart....to those who loved her dearly and will miss her presence in their lives, prayers for you for comfort and the calming peace of God's love....and for the live of Jan Allton, we can give thanks and know beyond doubt that she is in the eternal presence of her Savior and God...
