“ We were friends from age six - 66 years of what real friendship is about. From grade school through junior high, senior high and then married life, we shared our deepest secrets, laughed, cried, sought and gave advice, discussed family, especially children and husbands, etc. We were a part of each other's families and truly became sisters in the sweetest form of the word. I find myself wanting to call her; I will miss sitting across the booth from her for our biweekly Cokes and talks. I will miss her smiling face, seeing her in church, sharing her compassionate, sensitive, loving, patient ways. She will be missed and remembered and always loved.

“ A beautiful classmate of the Class of MHS 1955 has left us for a much better place. I will remember her so fondly. The weather was treacherous or several of us from this area would have been at the service. Condolences to the entire family that she loved so dearly.##imported-begin##Pat (Cotter) True##imported-end##

“ I will miss Janice. She and Yvonne had taken me to lunch before, and we always just had a good time. Even when they came by the office, just about three or four months ago, Janice looked beautiful. I loved her eyes, smile and great sense of humor.##imported-begin##Paulette Miller##imported-end##
