“ So sorry for the loss of your daughter and sister.

“ My deepest condolences go out to Janie's family and friends on her passing. We are all better people for having known her.

Although it has been many years since I last saw Janie, possibly the high school class reunion held at M.H.'s and Doris' home some 25 or 30 years ago, I feel the pain her loss must be causing you. She was an extraordinary person; one of those few we can look back on and know we were blessed to know during our lifetime. There was nothing phony about Janie. She was sincere, big hearted, and the kind of person who had your back, and you were glad of it.

She was an exceptional athlete. A fierce competitor on the basketball court, and if opportunities for women in sports hadn't been limited, at least in Fairland, to girls six on six basketball, I have no doubt she would have excelled in any sport she tried.

May God bless you and keep you and give you peace.

“ Ah Janie, such a sister-in-law. A purveyor of the geegaw. She was a keeper of souvenirs and knick-knacks and quilts. Others may marvel at the miniature figurine, be it intricate or simple. But, she listened to the stories they had to tell with devotion. And in her mind traveled to distant lands with curious animals and nonesuch peoples.
