“ I'm only just now learning of your passing sweet girl, been a LONG time since Elm Acres, not sure what I'd have done without you all those years ago. I love you mama, til we meet again

“ Jenelle was one of my closest friends while she lived in The Dalles, we were always hanging out and having a good time. I still remember to this day the day we went to OHSU for her when she was having her baby girl. That was one of the hardest and joyful days of her life. Just before she moved back to Kansas. Girl you were always loved and will forever be missed.
