What a great picture. What a handsome man with his pretty wife. So sorry about your loss Karin. Jerry was a really a kind soul. I enjoyed talking to him. Even when he was deep into reading his online books he always took time to chat. He will be missed.

“ Thank you, Jerry, for being as wonderful a husband as you could be! Sometimes, I made decisions you thought were radical! Sometimes, we didn't agree about everything. It didn't matter. Flowers appeared sooner than later on the table. You said you were sorry, and you always loved me with all your heart! What a sweet husband! Thanks so much to Quail Ridge Living Center and to Comforting Hands Hospice in Grove for helping take the utmost care of you all the way to the end of your time on Earth. I know you are welcomed among the angels in Heaven.

In loving memory, always, Darling. May your memory always be for a blessing!
