

Jessup Nick Tyler Victor

March 26, 1992 - July 3, 2023

Jessup Nick Tyler Victor, 31, a resident of Bluejacket, Oklahoma passed away on Monday, July 3, 2023, at Freeman Health System in Joplin, Missouri. Jessup was born on March 26, 1992, in Miami, Oklahoma, to Randall Carl and Sheryl Marie (Shade) Victor. Jessup graduated from Welch High School in 2011. After high school he worked as a ranch hand. His true passion was rodeo. He was a roper and a bull fighter. He will always be remembered having a smile on his face while cracking a joke. Most of all he loved his boys, Jasper Tate Victor, and Jep Tyler Victor. Jessup is preceded in passing by his brother, Michael William Victor.

Those left to share the memory of Jessup are his parents, Randal and Sheryl Victor, sons, Jasper and Jep Victor, brother, Matthew Carl Victor and his wife, Allie of Vinita, Oklahoma, three nephews, and one niece. He will also be missed by lots of family and many friends.

There will be a celebration of life for Jessup on Saturday, July 15, 2023, at 2:00 P.M. at Mound Valley Baptist Church. Services have been placed in the care of Brown-Winter Funeral Home and Cremation Service in Miami, Oklahoma.

Friends and family may send the family notes of encouragement by viewing Jessup's Tribute Page at www.brown-winters.com.

“ I always loved when Jessup would bull fight at my grandsons youthr odeos. I knew he would put his life on the line for Hunter and all the riders.
I also have fond memories of Jessup and my family tubing in the mud at Clinton, Arkansas at the chuckwagon races. He was a very special man. He will be missed 💔
