“ So sorry that I was unable to attend the service. Mr. Lannan hired me for my first teaching job at Washington Elementary, where I taught for 18 years. My thoughts and prayers are with your family.

“ It was an honor to have worked with Mr. Lannan at Washington Elementary. He was a fine Principal. He was respectful to his teachers and he was very gentle and kind to all of his students. I was a fairly new teacher and I feel he led by example. I learned a great deal from him. I will miss him.

“ When Joe and I first met, he didn't like me very much; after all, I was seeing his daughter - now my wife of over 30 years. He taught me two things I'll always cherish:
1) Everyone deserves a chance
2) There's no shame in changing your mind
He always cared and always welcomed us into his home. I love my father-in-law as I would love my own.

“ We were camping and had cooked chili earlier in the day. It started raining and we all ran inside Grandpa's (Joe) trailer to get warm and dry. Then someone remembered we had forgot the chili outside in the rain, and right about then, Grandpa burst into the trailer, pot held high, and proclaimed, "I'VE GOT THE CHILI!!" Everyone laughed themselves to tears...
