

Juanita Jean Booth

February 7, 1932 - January 1, 2019

Juanita Jean Booth, 86-year-old lifetime Miami area resident passed away, Monday January 1, 2019.

Jean was born on February 7, 1932 in Miami, Oklahoma to Chester and Irene (Pace) Stamback. She married Paul Booth on September 12, 1948 in Columbus, Kansas. Together they worked the family farm near the home Jean was born in and in which she grew up, just south of Miami, Oklahoma.

Together they raised a loving somewhat chaotic family (at least she tried). Jean being a farmer's wife helped her husband with the farm operation and grew wonderfully large gardens to keep the family fed. She especially loved spending time with her family but also enjoyed cooking and feeding her family, friends, and anyone who walked in the front door. There was so much teasing, laughter and fun around the family table. Jean also loved reading her bible and listening to the old-time gospel songs her parents and their friends sang. Jean is preceded in death by her husband Paul, Parents Chester and Irene (Pace) Stamback, sister Joan Montgomery and infant great grandchild Taryn Nickerson.

Jean is survived by four children, Linda Cox of Miami, Oklahoma; Becky Nickerson and husband Charles of Marshall, Texas; Tony Booth of Indianahoma, Oklahoma; and John Booth and wife Janie of Grove, Oklahoma. Jean is also survived by a brother Evert Stamback, sister Sharon Montgomery, six grandchildren, nine great grandchildren and 1 great great grandchild.
