“ It seems really silly now but Judy Tony Kenneth Simmons and I had more fun turnpike surfing. We'd get the biggest piece of cardboard we could find go to the turnpike overpass and slide down the hill. It was a different time in 67 but I wouldn't trade the memories. She will be missed. “ Judy was one of the most likeable people in this world... We worked together and played together for several years. A joy to be around, and she could really cut -a-rug on the face floor! I know she will be missed by many.
