“ Sweet, sweet Kaleb...

I have wrestled so much with the question of “why.” I have said the words “this isn’t possible” so many times in recent days.

The only conclusion I can wrap my mind around is that this is indeed not possible. You simply cannot be gone. Kaleb, you were a pure light. Such light cannot be extinguished. Instead, a light as bright as yours ascends to the heavens to shine for eternity with the saints and angels and our God. You are not gone, you just... ascended. Your light is so badly missed in this world, but I hold on to the hope that it will shine on all of us again when we see you in heaven.

Love,

Mrs. Kleps

P.S. I owe you some time on the big pottery wheel in the sky. We'll have time-all of eternity!

“ Today we said a tearful goodbye to one of my students. Kaleb was my student when he was in the second grade. He was 18. He died on Wednesday, November 9, 2022.

Thinking about Kaleb I am reminded of his exuberant personality. I will acknowledge in one sentence that he could be a little spitfire. I choose to remember his sweet smile. When he combined his sweet smile with his exuberant personality, he was charming. He knew how to use that charm to get exactly what he wanted.

Kaleb had a great work ethic and he loved to learn. He would get to work on any task that was assigned and didn't quit until he had that work completed and then he wanted more work. It was exhausting trying to keep up with him.

Kaleb loved his classmates (well most of them). He wanted everyone to be happy. Kaleb would intercede in a conflict between students to bring peace.

Kaleb loved his family. He gave me regular updates on his big brother and sister.

As God would have it, I saw Kaleb on October 4th. He was working at the state fair. We visited for some time. He told me about his plans. He had the steps outlined to reach his goals. It warmed my heart to see him happy, healthy, and thriving.

I know that his friends and family would appreciate your prayers as they navigate these painful days ahead.

“ I was the assistant principal at WHS from 2019-2022. Caleb became a member of the CHAMPS Male Mentoring program in 2021. He expressed his dreams and struggles to the group which is the what we are all about. He was coming to terms to who he was and what he wanted out of life. I was looking forward to what he was going to accomplish in his life. I am crushed by the news of his passing. A man that was going to leave his mark on the world is no longer with us. He was very expressive in what was wrong with the institution of education, and I learned a lot from his thoughts. His passing leaves a hole in my life, and I will forever think of him when education and reality fails to match up to what should be. God bless his family, and he will never be forgotten.

“ We went to school together forever and aside from random words exchanged and sharing a class we just passed each other in the hallway. October of our senior year i was waiting outside on the benches and he just sat down next to me and we talked for about half an hour, about school, about life, and about what we wanted to be one day-just about everyday after that if i saw him he'd always say hi, for the rest of the year he never forgot to say hello and ask how i was. He was such a bright person, Always always always smiling and joking and just a huge ray of light.

“ Although I wasn't close with him, I still thought of him as my big brother... I met him my sophomore year officially, but I met him before that because my aunt was good friends with him... In Spanish he always would paint my nails like every 2 weeks lol and I was always there to listen to anything he had to say.. He was a great guy and I miss him so much... He used to stop by at my work and he always had a very contagious smile on his face, which made me always smile... Even when I was going through stuff... I literally saw him a week ago... But now he's gone... You will always be in my heart Kaleb 😭😭❤️ fly high bud..

“ I will never forget when you always uplifted me and always had a chuckle wherever you went. Especially when I was in my first year of JROTC Kaleb, you were the most uplifting person who always encouraged me, it was something I was nervous and couldn't imagine doing, but you never gave it up and always talked me back into it that's what I'll always appreciate and remember about you. ☐

“ Kaleb was one of the nicest and encouraging people I've met during my freshman year of high school. Fast forward to now being a Junior in high school, Kaleb left an impact on me to keep going. He taught me so much as a freshman and I will continue to carry his words of wisdom till this day on forward. Kaleb did many things in this life that left a positive impact on so many people and he is so loved by many including myself. RIP Kaleb, I pray that God takes good care of you and that you're doing well ☐

“ I went to elementary with Kaleb we didn't really take them but we waved. last year Kaleb and I we got kinda close and though we didn't get extremely close we did get closer enough we were pretty close friends. He already brought a smile to my face when I was down he saw and he tried his best to make anyone smile. We had agriculture together and that class was probably my favorite class. Kaleb would be talking to miss Goodson (the AG teacher) and all you would hear is miss Goodson laughing and laughing I believe he made her day 90% of the time of not more he would always put a smile on everyone's face and if he didn't he would keep trying until he did. He would always put a smile on a sad face. Kaleb taught me so much about how to get a job, good handlers permit, etc. Kaleb in a way helped me get my first job and I'm thankful for that. When I know he could help me with something I'd go to him and he would have pretty good advice.

“ I might've never gotten that close to Kaleb but when I was still going to Webster, he was always funny and would joke around with me at times. I still can't believe it. My prayers for his family etc 💖 taken too soon :(.

“ I don't even have the words...I loved Kaleb! He was an amazing student with a great sense of humor and a smile that never left that sweet face! He ALWAYS had a smile and a hug for me! I first met him as a 7th grader at Clinton, and man he kept me on my toes! Always there, always hilarious. Last year at Webster, he always came in to the cafeteria while I was on Breakfast duty. He'd ask what was for breakfast, then he'd voice his opinions about it, then he'd hug me and was off to JROTC. He loved that class and I truly believe that's where he thrived. He also, from 7th grade on, always asked about my daughter, she's the same age and I talked about her a lot in class. They'd met a few times at school stuff I brought her too. We are completely heartbroken about his loss. Prayers for his family and friends...I know you know, but man he was a good one and will be forever missed. He's eternally in my heart. Love you always, Kaleb! Rest easy, kid...💔
