“ Kathryn Parish was my very special aunt and I will always treasure the memories we made together. She spent countless hours with my mother, Ruth, and me. Her giggle was infectious and she always made me smile. I knew she loved me and she showed it in so many ways. She was generous and always came bearing gifts. We loved to drink cokes, eat candy and devour Lotta Burgers. I still have the many books she gave to me. From her I inherited a love of crossword puzzles, but could never master the art like she did. She was so kind to me and I will miss her dearly. Rest in peace, sweet Aunt Kathryn.##imported-begin##Linda West Jacobs##imported-end##
