Thanks for the memories. I first remember Kevin when I was a child. He was a prankster and the children were often involved. He must have impressed his nephew as Uncle Larry took over for him when Kevin was around. The jokes, the story telling and that mischievous twinkle in his eyes. A true McNamara. Always fun when Kevin was around.

Kevin was fun to be around. I enjoyed his sense of humor and the twinkle in his eye. Later in life, we enjoyed communicating via electronics and kept up with family matters, current events and everyday chit-chat. Later, he became the Patriarch of the McNamara family and carried that honor with pride. I'll miss him.
