We were friends in high school, and he influenced my decision to join Navy. We served briefly together in Orlando. Saw him in 1981 after I got out. We lost touch, but always enjoyed tipin a beer or a cup of coffee and play guitars with Kim. Looks like he lived a good life. He was a good friend

“ My darling husband, I will never, ever forget our first meeting. Although we had spoken many times online and on the phone, you and I both knew, when we met, we had a special connection, our hearts became one. When your heart stopped beating on Monday 17th June 2024 in morning at 4.00am, so did part of mine. I lost part of myself, a missing piece of my heart that will not be whole until I'm with you my sweet Casey. I miss you so much, darling. I long to feel your arms around me again, you always made me feel safe, and protected. You are my soul mate, and living my life without you, however long that will be will be the hardest journey. I love you

“*Alison and all family, I know there are no words that will take away the pain , but I am praying for all of you. I am so grateful I was able to see Kim recently. Kim and I laughed over how cool I thought it was to stay in his room when we visited Aunt Jo’s house. I have so many memories of the family reunions and Kim grabbing his guitar. Although he did not get his miracle here on earth , oh what a reunion he is experiencing with all of our family who are sitting with Jesus now! And that brings some peace. Much love to you all !

“ Thoughts, love and prayers are with Mum, also to my brothers and sisters Kade, Kipp, Julie and Jennifer, Oliver, Jonathan and Alexander. I can't imagine how hard this must be for you. Especially for the past 6 months.

Casey was such a good man, he was a kind, funny, talented guitarist, grill magician and loved by anyone who was lucky enough to meet him.

Whenever we got to visit USA to see mum and the boys, we were always equally excited to see Casey. Likewise when he got to visit London, you would always find him in a British pub sampling the local beers. I remember the first time he visited, he stayed with us and kept saying "I can't believe I'm actually in London, rob can we go and have tea with the queen".

Although the time with you was painfully short, you left a massive impression on us. Whether it be laughing at who did the worst Arnold Schwarzenegger impression "get to the choppa", drinking a beer with you in your garage during a thunderstorm, soundchecking with us before a gig or sharing the word of god. These are things that will still stay with me forever. Whenever I think of you, it will be of a happy time and make me smile.

Thanks for looking after mum and the boys and for being a great Pappy to Aubrey. You rest and give grandma Jo, Gran, Gully, Nell and Lexie a big hug from us all.

Love you and god bless

Truly I feel devastated for you Alison, my dear sister in Christ. It is such a blessing to have been put in your path, and pray that you find comfort in Jesus as you navigate life henceforth. I know you will be reunited with your beloved Casey again one day, and until then he's going to be watching over you. Sending love and prayers to you and the whole family, from the UK.

“ I'm not even sure what I can say right now dad! What I can say is you fought so hard. I spent so much time with you over the last 6 months. I walked through every stage of this horrible disease and I saw you at your most vulnerable state. We had many nights of sitting and talking, laughing, and crying. I got to see the raw side of you that I never knew. I know how much you love mum and how much you loved everyone and how proud you were of everyone. I got to hear the many things you were proud of. I know that over this time, you taught me alot about life being short and to love unconditionally. I honestly don't know how to do this, but the one thing I promised you from the start was that I would be here until the end. I also promised you that I would look out for mum and all my siblings and I will keep my promise to you. Idk how to say goodbye or to even say goodbye dad. What I will say, is that I will see you again! I love you so much!

“ Our deepest and most heartfelt sympathy to you, Alison and your entire family both here and across the pond. Although we all have never met in person, we felt we have known you and Casey for years. Casey had so many remarkable traits; love for his family, fur babies and friends, ability to connect with you on a genuine level, hilarious sense of humor, his thick Oklahoma accent, always happy and vibrant voice, authentic caring and kindness, a man of Faith and passion for music. His bright soul will be dearly missed by all who had the good fortune of knowing him and memories cherished for years to come. God speed.

“ KC and my Mum visited the UK shortly after the arrival of our first born, Seth. We were definitely feeling the pressure of being sleep deprived new parents! KC busted out his singing skills and soothed the savage beast that was our son. Will always remember that.

Thank you KC for always looking after my Mum and brothers. And well done Mum for always being his rock and being so tough during these dark months.

Our condolences to Alison, Jenny, Julie, Kade, Kip, Oliver, Jonathan and Alexander, as well as everyone that knew and loved KC.
