“ Kimmie Dawn, you've accomplished so much. You worked hard for everything, especially in raising two amazing daughters, and in the love I know you had for your grands. As God welcomes you to heaven, may He be a comfort to those you've left behind, knowing this is only "See you later." You are loved and will be missed.

“ Kimmie Dawn was equal parts sunshine and sass. She was always so open and honest and I respect that so much. I live by these notions and I am so proud to have had such a great example of living life playfully and honestly. She will always be missed.

“ Where to I begin. You are my best friend. We shared everything. Your children are my children. When we needed each other most we found each other. I am angry you were taken from me but I'm happy you are at peace. I keep picturing you on your hill, swinging and watching your kids. I like that image. Save me a spot next to you we will have so much to catch up on. I love you Kim. Much love to all of you. I wish I could be there. Please no I'm there in spirit. Love you all.

“ I'll forever be thankful for all of the things Kim has done for me. She became a second mom to me..
One of my favorite memories was the first time I stayed the night at her house my senior year, I loved to give her crap about that night. I also have her to thank for my addiction to Starbucks & inappropriate sense humor. I always felt at home with you & your family. I will always smile at the thought of you & I'm so thankful for my memories with you. I love you so much, Kimmie!!!!

“ Any time spent with Kimmie was filled with so much emotion including a great deal of laughter. She could make you think, shock you, entertain you all the while letting you know where you stood with her. She was honest and clear on her opinions. I loved that. I enjoyed my time with her and while I will miss our visits I'm so grateful to have known her. My deepest sympathy to her beautiful family of which she was so very proud. We were indeed blessed to have her in our lives.

“ Nikki And family it is hard to know what to say. Kimmie was almost like a daughter to me. I have as many pictures of you as I do my own grandson. One of the hardest things you will ever endure is coming to grip with the loss of your mother. I wish there was something I could do or say to lessen your pain, but the truth is, there just isn't anything. Love you even though it has been many years since that time. Judy
