“ Leon, Mary & family. I received the news today of your loss. Your family is in my thoughts. Some of my favorite memories of my childhood involved Lance. My favorite summer was spent building a fort in the woods near the top of the hill. I will also cherish the memories of our time in band together. He will live on through our memories and thoughts.

“ Leon, Mary and Lane,
We just heard of Lance's passing and we are so sad for your loss.
We have great memories of him. Words give us so little comfort but God is the great comforter when nothing else helps. Philippians 4:6-8

“ Mr. & Mrs. Manning,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your son. We attended school together and he was always the highlight of the class. Lance had such a carefree spirit and had a way of setting even my worries at ease. I am blessed to have known him. I pray for strength and comfort for your family.
Sincerely,

“ It seems such a short time ago that he was in fourth grade -- always thinking and usually smiling. I'm so very sorry for your loss.

“ *Where do I begin to start with Lance... He was a friend like no other.
Every time I was with him was an adventure waiting to happen. An evening sitting at home could turn into an all night writing session that made a short story turn into a 60 page novella. Driving around town would likely turn into getting lost on some dirt road 60 miles from home. Going out to eat always meant meeting new people. I can honestly say I don't think I ever went to Wal-Mart without coming home with some outlandish story... Though I won't have any new stories to tell, he will forever live on in the many that I already have. When I meet new people and begin to recount some of our great adventures, it is always met with laughs and smiles. I can honestly say that I am glad to have known him. He will long be remembered by people he never even met through the tales of our time together!*

“ I will always remember Lance's smile when we were in middle and high school. He was so full of life and such a good guy. I remember one particular day in front of the middle school, it was the beginning of summer, last days of school, end of the day and we were standing around and laughing. Miss those carefree times. I will miss you Lance.

I went to the Christmas Ornament service today @ Brown -Winter. I am so sorry! I had no idea that this man was your son and that he had passed. So sorry !
