“ Larry was a special man. Very quiet, un-assuming and sweet. And what a hard worker! I will always remember him when I look at my breezeway and the porch eaves he repaired for me.

“ Larry Dean was my cousin and was a few years older than me, but I can remember family lunches at grandmas with him there. He never was around much but those times he was I remember with fondness. May he rest in peace - Sherry (Owens) Bartlett
