

Larry Gene Diuguid

September 28, 1955 - April 1, 2012

Larry Gene Diuguid, 56, Afton, OK., passed away Sunday, April 1, 2012, at 6:30 a.m., at Freeman Hospital, Joplin, MO., after a short illness. Larry was born Sept. 28, 1955, in Lynwood, CA., to Edgar and Mamie Diuguid. After spending many years in southern California, he moved his young family to Oklahoma. Larry was a painter by trade and started his own business, LD Painting, in the mid 90s. When he wasn't working, you would find him on his four wheeler at the lake, fishing from the bridge, riding his lawn mower, or home with his family (watching football). He is survived by his parents, his wife, Marisa, of the home, four sons, Max Diuguid and Kris, of the home, Samuel Diuguid, an airman stationed in San Angelo, TX, Jason Noriega of CA, and Robe and Julie Diuguid of Temecula, CA; three daughters, Danica Diuguid and Yasser, of the home, Marci and Tony Haslage of WI, and Toni Diuguid of AZ; one brother, Edward and Martha Diuguid of TX, two sisters, Sherry Diuguid of Georgia, and Michele and Bill Franklin, of TX., a sister-in-law, Bonnie Diuguid of CA., his mother-in-law and father-in-law, Blllye and Jim Housman, of Grove, OK; a sister-in-law Paula Bliesath and Danny Knight of Afton, OK.; brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Jeff and Denise Bliesath of Santee, CA, and sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Robyn and Mark Caruthers of Tulsa, OK. He is also survived by grandchildren, Kyana and Jason Tyler Noriega, Ava Haslage and Nikolas Vladyka and a hos of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins. Not to be forgotten is his extended family down at the lake. He was preceded in death by brother, Steve Diuguid, father-in-law Paul Bliesath and brother-in-law Ron Housman. Visitation will be Thursday, April 5, 2012, from 6-8 p.m. at Adcock Funeral Home in Afton. Services will be at 2:00 p.m., Friday, April 6, 2012 at First Baptist Church in Afton with Rev. Ray Clanton officiating.