“ Lester's sister, Ethel, who is 93 years young, can't be at the service today but sends her love and hugs and always tells us stories of your lives growing up and has continued to share stories of her telephone conversations she has continued to enjoy. We will need to mail her famous apple cakes to Heaven, and with it we send our hugs and love. Prayers to the entire family and may Lester rest in peace.

“ Uncle Lester,
I remember visiting you and Aunt Virginia when I was little. Was always a treat to see y'all and the other aunts and uncles. I will miss you. Give Aunt Virginia and the rest of aunts & uncles all our love. I know you all will be watching over the family.

May the Great Spirit keep you and give you peace until the time we are all together again.

Love you, your Great Niece Jessica.

“ Uncle Lester,

I will miss you. You are now with your best friend and the love of your life. Give Aunt Virginia a hug and kiss. The river will never be the same without you. Love you, your niece Lori “ Unfortunately I didn't grow up close enough to hear all of his amazing fish stories. However as an adult with my own children we were able to visit with him and enjoyed EVERY moment of it. You will be greatly missed.

“ Lester, I love you. You taught each of us how to fish and coon hunt as well as skinning rabbits. Thank you my brother. Now you will catch plenty fish in the heavenly pond. And you were always ready to whittle a new whistle for all our children. An amazing man for sure.
