

Lois Elaine Rexwinkle

April 5, 1949 - November 13, 2023

Elaine Rexwinkle, beloved daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed away on November 13th, 2023, at the age of 74 in Grand Lake, Oklahoma. She was born on April 5th, 1949, in Coffeyville, Kansas, to the late W. Wayne and Joy ValJean Kallenberger. Elaine's warm and loving nature touched the lives of all who knew her.

Elaine's journey began in Kechi, Kansas, where she spent her early years before moving to Mound City, Kansas. On February 18th, 1967, she married M. Ron King, and together they had 2 daughters and divorced in 1978. After their divorce, Elaine moved to South Coffeyville, where she discovered her soulmate, W. Dale Rexwinkle. They exchanged vows on April 18th, 1980.

Elaine's heart overflowed with unconditional love for her family. She was a devoted mother to her daughters, Lisa McMillan (Bob), Melissa Tennant (Brad) and Rita Shelton (Ed). Her grandchildren, Kara Jacobs (Josh), Lainey Drake (David), Mitchell Roche (Colby), Stetson Haverkamp (Allyson), Cameron Moody (Victoria), Krista Bell, Katie Rexwinkle, Kailee Schwader (Riley), Molly Sternberg (Richard), Dillon Koester, AJ Shelton, and Amanda Chancellor (Adam) were her greatest treasures. Elaine was also blessed with 22 great-grandchildren, who affectionately called her "Gigi Momma." She adored each and every one of them.

Elaine's warm and welcoming nature extended beyond her family. She had an extraordinary ability to make everyone she met feel loved and cherished. Her generosity knew no bounds, and she welcomed everyone with open arms. Elaine's love for the outdoors led her to spend countless hours on the pontoon at Grand Lake, whether it was fishing or simply enjoying a leisurely ride. Her joy and zest for life were contagious, and the memories she created will forever be cherished by her family and friends.

In addition to her loving family, Elaine is survived by her mother, Joy ValJean Thorton, and her brothers, Larry Kallenberger (Laura), Donnie Kallenberger (Regina), and Barry Kallenberger (Audrey). She was preceded in death by her father, Wayne Kallenberger, her brother Kenneth Kallenberger, her daughter Melissa Tennant, her granddaughter Katie Rexwinkle, and her great-grandson Beckham Sternberg. Elaine also leaves behind numerous nieces and nephews, all of whom held a special place in her heart.

Elaine's professional journey was marked by dedication and hard work. She held various roles throughout her career, including working at JenCast in South Coffeyville, Sirloin Stockade in Coffeyville, Craig Co. District, and Nowata Co. District. She eventually became a purchasing agent and retired in 2011, leaving behind a legacy of professionalism and commitment.

Outside of her career, Elaine found immense joy in spending time with her family and friends. Whether it was fishing, swimming in the lake, or simply enjoying each other's company, Elaine's presence brought happiness to those around her.

“ Hey there, Mr. Tin Man. She used to say that was one of her favorites. But she was a Kansas girl with a BIG heart. Isle's End Cove will never be the same. But I know that to honor her, I will spend a little more time checking on and visiting with our neighbors like she always did. She will be missed.

“ Elaine sat in my pedicure chair every 4 weeks for the last 4 years but more than that she was like a second mother to me. She always had the time to listen and we have shared so many laughs and tears together. She was so kind to my children and we loved the time on the docks fishing and swimming with friends that became like family. There is now a huge hole in my heart. You will be dearly missed sweet momma.

“ I had the privilege of growing up down the street from Elaine and Dale. I will always remember the warm smile she had to share every time I seen her riding on the buggy with snooze, or swimming around her dock with her family. My heart goes out to you all during this difficult time.
