

Lois M. Rogers

June 21, 1927 - February 9, 2019

Long time Westville resident Lois Maxine Rogers passed away at West Siloam Springs, OK on Saturday, February 9, 2019. She was 91.

Lois was born June 21, 1927 to William (Bill) Junius Sherrin and Bessie Ann McCallie in Holdenville, OK. Lois and Carl F. Guthrie were married February 27, 1943.

She was saved when a young girl and then moved with her parents to rural Westville.

Lois was one of the first employees at Baldor Electric when the Westville plant opened and she worked there until her retirement. On many days, she would hurry from work to check on her aging parents and widowed mother-in-law. She spent many hours taking them to doctor appointments, shopping and making sure they did not need anything. When her mother went to live at the Westville Nursing Home, Lois would stop in every afternoon to ensure she was well looked after.

Lois loved her family and was always available to rock babies, pat bottoms, and plant kisses. Her last grandchild was a girl, and because she loved to sew, Granny made her lots of dresses.

Lois married Charles T. Rogers October 17, 1980. Both were country music fans and Lois spent many evenings listening to Charlie & the band play music until his death on October 1, 1986.

Lois was preceded in death by her first husband, Carl F. Guthrie, her second husband Charles T. Rogers, her daughter June Ann Barton, her son Floyd D.

Guthrie, and one grandson Kevin D. Guthrie.

She is survived by one son, Clyde E. Guthrie and his wife Karen, of Miller, MO; Daughter-in-law Leann Guthrie of Gentry, AR, 5 grandsons, 1 granddaughter, 7 great-grandchildren and 2 great-great grandchildren, several nieces & nephews and a host of other family and friends.

Graveside services for Lois will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, February 16, 2019 at Westville City Cemetery, Westville, OK.
