“ Lonnie (Kip) was a good friend and he will be missed. We shared more than a few stories, a lot of drinks and the kind of friendship a couple of old cowboys appreciate.

He called me out of the blue a couple of months ago and asked me to come by his house. He told me the Doctors had given him only a brief time to live but that he was good with it and was square with God. He wanted me to have his pocket knife and a western print to remember him by. I graciously accepted and told him I'd be there anytime he needed me. We talked about his old blue Dodge truck and Pancho. The old truck burned-up in Marvins parking lot and Pancho, his best four legged friend, had gone on before him. He said he didn't know which he missed more but I do. He absolutely loved that mischeivious little pool cue stealing dog.

Kip Jackson.....This friend will miss you! If you run into Robbie, Tell him I'll be along to see you guys directly.
