I know your hearts must be broken at this time.

That's why genealogy was so important to her.
Luretta was such a beautiful person I am proud to have called her my friend “ Words cannot begin to describe how sad I am for Anthony and the family, due to Loretta’s passing. She touched so many lives in numerous ways and was so friendly and giving to all those who came into her life. Her loss will be felt by many.

We met when Loretta started to school at Afton, many, many years ago. It now seems as though it has been a lifetime. Although we went our separate ways from school days and raised our families, we came back together through PTA in Miami, as well as historical and genealogical research and writing. Had it not been for her constant encouragement, I would never have tackled the Afton History website or completed publication of the book about Afton’s early history. She was such a great help with both!

I will always treasure the time we were able to spend together, from just shopping to doing genealogical and historical interviews. Loretta had her family history research etched in her brain, so in recent years as her sight waned, we had an awfully lot of discussions and checking the computer and books for the families she was researching. These are times I will always treasure.

Farewell, dear friend.... You were loved by many and hold a special place in the hearts of your family and friends.

“ To the Williams family: our sincere empathy and prayers for you all! We lost our mother last May 20 when her house burned. We know the feelings of complete desperation, sorrow that has untold depths, and devastating grief. I'm so so sorry you have to go thru this. We can only pray that the peace of God will wrap you up and hold you close. Like Mary in the Bible, whom Jesus called in her grief for Lazarus, He will call for you. The word "comfort" means to "come forth" to the arms of God. Only there will you find strength to go on with life without your loved one. He will help you deal with the horror of it all. Please know that our whole family is praying for you. We extend love in he name of Christ.

“ My heart goes out to all of you.
You don't know me, but I am a firefighter who also lost his mother last May 20 in a house fire.
I was the first one on scene and know the desperate feeling of trying vainly to rescue a loved one.
I know you are going to hurt for a long time but let us intentionally turn our eyes toward God. You may not get answers to all your whys but there is comfort to be found in his arms.
My prayers are with you and may His everlasting arms uphold you.

“ Our hearts, minds, and prayers are with the extended Williams Family of Loretta and Tony Williams.

We first met Loretta 62 years ago at a Woody family gathering in Afton. At the time John and I were the oldest couple along with Virgil. Two years later that would change when we got married and Virgil was our best man. Throughout the following years the Williams boys all married their sweethearts from that first meeting.

The tragedy that happened last Wednesday night has affected so many lives now. The family tree has grown so much since 62 years ago. Still, the one thing we know is we will all meet and reunite again. I am so glad I introduced Loretta to genealogy forty years ago. She became a real pro. Now she will get to meet all those long ago relatives on both sides of the family tree.

God be with you until we meet again. May you know you brought love and joy to all who knew you.

“ Although Jim and I have only known Loretta and her family for just a few years, we came to treasure that connection. Sometimes people just have a place in your heart from the very first meeting. This person was one of those. Our hearts are so in tune with the remaining Williams family members.

“ This hard to write but Luretta Williams and I have been friends for several years. Wrote a book together. Had a lot of research of the different cemeteries in the area.Alot of hot days looking for different graves it took us far and wide but with her knowledge of the area of Narcissa, Oklahoma we accomplished what she had wanted to do. We could spend the day out in the hot sun come home and work for hours on the book or just on family research. I think the libraries kind of wanted to hide when we would hit them up for information. We could spend the day at flea markets or in Joplin, Mo. shopping and doing nothing at all. Handicrafts were a part of research and the Fair projects. Genealogy was another things we could do and enjoy the retreats and family history. You are going to be missed for the phone calls and little grips that we both could come up with that did not amount to a hill of beans. Rest in peace my friend, little buddy and researcher. You was on good friend and buddy. Our love and sympathy to all the family. Chester, Shirley and Marty Ratliff Lloyd and Elaine Ratliff-Hutson

Prayers for Loretta's family. Loretta was a second mom to so many of her children's friends and the door to their home was never closed to anyone. A wonderful woman with a big heart is how we will remember Loretta. Heaven has truly received her with open arms. Sincere condolences to the entire Williams family for their loss.
