“ - have known Irene all my life - - What a pleasure it was to know her, her precious mother Letha Fields, and her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. "Mackie" - (McDaniels was the family name but to all of us in the neighborhood they were Mr. and Mrs. Mackie). We were all so happy when Irene married Ray and built their pretty new house. Irene was so thoughtful of others - both family and friends, and was very well-read and wore the prettiest clothes. All of my family adored her. Her kindness and generosity will never be forgotten. She and I always exchanged Christmas cards and letters throughout the years - - always a delight to hear from her. I have pieces of her ceramic creations and also the now much used cook book she gave me as wedding gift over fifty years ago. Thanks , Irene, for being a part of the lives of the Collins family. We all adored you.

“ Met Irene when she was working at the Court House and I was working for Attorneys. She then started attending church at my home church. Never met a nicer lady, so sweet, always had a smile for everyone.
*She may be gone, but she is not forgotten.
Rest in the Lord, Irene. We will see you again one day.*
