“ My dear Friend Peggy, you will be missed so much by me and my kids, Annie and Chris! We've had great times together. I hold dear the time that I have spent with you. Just visiting or going shopping or just taking you to any kind of appointment you had. We have spent a few Christmas Eve's and a few Christmas days together. My kids remember those good times too. We have spent a lot of time just on the phone. I have already have picked up the phone and called your house in stead of the time and temp., which I often did.

I had a note from Chris that read, I'm sorry to hear about Peggy. I loved her. She was and I think he says it all, such an amazing person and good friend to you. I have you and her family in my thoughts and prayers. She was so witty and clever. I loved her humor. I appreciated how put together she was. And I considered her family. She and Bill will always have a big warm spot in my heart. I think that says it for all three f us.

So, Dear Friend, until we meet again. Love you always!

Linda, Annie and Chris
