“ Margie had many friends from her grade school days at Will Rogers and from Miami High School, and N.E.O College. The last several years a group of us had been meeting up 3 or 4 times a year for luncheons and holiday gift parties. We will all remember her coming to those and having fun and sharing her funny stories. Since hearing was a problem for her, we would write notes and she would read them and then say her side of it. We all loved having her come share the fun. She was ready to be with Jesus. We will miss our sweet friend. She's now walking and talking with Him.
