“ I was his girl. I'll never forget being the only one who could drink his Mountain Dew. He probably did that to make me feel special and it worked. He would pop me up on the counter and let me have a drink. I would give Scott snotty looks while I enjoyed the sweet drink he wasn't allowed to have. I remember being in the hospital with him and being woven into a thousand tubes and monitor cords so I could lay with him. I laid there as still as I could. After that for years he took the role of comforting me many times. I would lay with him when I was sick and he would hold onto me when I would cry. We took care of him, but he took care of us. He will be sorely missed.

“ Mark and I met the summer he first moved to Fairland. I was 14 and he was about a year younger. We had a lot of really good memories made that summer. I assured him he would make a lot of friends when school started but until then I was almost the only one around, so we were best buddies for a short few months.

One of my most fun memories was when we were just hanging out in his yard, one dark night, suddenly his dad (whom I had not yet met) appeared out of nowhere with a scary mask and scared the Jeeves out of me! Scary then but funny to me later.

Once school began that Fall, we went our separate ways. He quickly made his own guy friends, and I went on with my friends.

He always held a special place in my heart from the moment we met, we experienced a very special forever friendship and I will always regret not coming around later in life when he needed friends most.

Rest In Peace Mark. You will be missed by many.

Sincerely,

Dayna

“ Sweet Mark always wanted to share his goodies with you whenever you came to visit. There was no selfishness with him for sure. He will be greatly missed. What a true inspiration he became to others.
