“ Mark was a regular at Woodys, all of us would look forward to seeing him come in the doors. He was a wonderful man with such a kind heart. The waitresses of Woodys will miss him dearly.

“ The very first time I met you, I was at my sister's and you walked by and saw my ford explorer sitting outside and you wanted it so bad!! You came up to the door and knocked looking like u was an eager happy child waiting for the candy store to open! ☐ When I opened the door you even called me mam. 🥹 We ended up selling you it that day... Then I also remember a few Christmas's ago you had posted on Facebook that you didn't have any family and you didn't have anything to eat... And it just broke my heart. 💔 So I packed up a couple plates and on my way home from my mamas house I walked up and knocked on your door. The light came on and you pulled back the curtain and as soon as you saw me standing there you gave me that same look as the day I met you! 😞 I'll never forget the hug you gave me! It reminded me of how my brother used to hug me.... To tight but your whole heart was in it. Mark you were a good human, weird yes; but I know God has you a place saved with your family right in the brightest garden in heaven! REST EASY MY FRIEND!
