“ Carrie, Valerie and Stephanie I was so saddened when I read of your Dads passing. Marty loved teasing anyone he could and especially if he knew he would get to you a little bit. My youngest daughter spent countless amounts of time at the house and thoroughly every minute of it. When Marty worked part time at Walmart he enjoyed greeting the customers as they came in or left visiting and teasing all who came by his station. He will be sadly missed by all who knew him. May God wrap his big arms of love around each of you and comfort and guide you through these tough times. Patsy and Mallory Seat
