“Mrs. Clapp was my 5th grade teacher. She was one of the strictest teachers I had but because of her I am the woman I am today. I was pretty much raised with this family between rodeos and my dad (Kevin Warren) being such good friends with Richard and Joe. I will forever will hold a special place in my heart for her. Love this sweet lady and her amazing family! Rip Momma Bear!

“ Mrs. Clapp was my 5th grade teacher. She was strict but gentle & I learned so much from her that year. Her smile lit up the room & her laugh was contagious. Her legacy of passion for learning is being passed on through generations of the children she taught. I've taught my girls some of the lessons I learned during my year with her. My deepest condolences to her family.
