“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the family and friends, Mary was a good lady! She stayed with Wathena and i at the lake for awhile, fixed her up a nice little room and enjoyed her company, her and Wathena sat outside a lot and just talked and enjoyed the lake view, i think Mary enjoyed it here as much as Wathena enjoyed having her! I remember making us all a big ribeye dinner one night and Mary said "i can't eat all that" but yet i remember scraping nothing but a potato peel off her plate ;) Mary will be missed by many, but is now at peace and with Larry. My prayers for peace to all the family and friends, God bless
Sincerely the Sievert family
