“ My mother was a wonderful living woman she had her problems but who doesn't have problems or issues I forgave her a long time ago and excepted she never meant any harm in her past actions and that she was just an imperfect person that God created and that no one is meant to be perfect which is why God gave his son for our sins malanie did not raise me her parents raised and adopted me but she was always my mother n me her son I love n miss her truly and thank god that she brought me into this world n for who I am
