“ I want the many friends who have been with Lynn and supported him in his business and many of them have had their own experiences with him, and so many have become very close with him over his life in general! Lynn, believed, that how ever he was able to help these friends and did so by giving them his solemn word, that he and his employees had the want, to do the work in clean and transparent fashion so they could be able to trust him with their personal lives and food safety! This came from his father teaching him how your words and actions, bring about many satisfied customers . These people were from far and wide, that came to him for their needs of processing meat and they were willing to place their faith in him to assist them in making the best possible nutritional decisions for excellent quality meat! We hope that all of these individuals will remember his good nature and confident in his ability and judgement. He will be missed as a businessman and respected reputation of honesty!
Lynn (LIGHTNING) Davis.
Your home now with our heavenly family, and we are all feeling hopeful he's finally at peace with his Lord Jesus Christ
