“ I went to high school & church with Mike. When you hear his name, immediately you picture that smile. Mike was one of the kindest, sweetest, and hilarious people I've ever known. If you met him, you loved him, and knew you found a lifelong friend. Some of our alumni had a mini-reunion 3 years ago. I am so very grateful I was able to attend, and hang out with the old gang, reminiscing about our glory days.
I pray for comfort and peace for Sandi and their family during this unimaginable difficult time. Thank you, Mike, for the honor and privilege of being able to call you my friend.

Mike was my cousin, and I have many fun childhood memories with our families, especially with boating and water skiing. Mike was a loving son, husband and father. I pray for his family left on earth, but rejoice with his heavenly family who have welcomed him 🙏❤️
