“ I knew Miles for the last few years of his life. He was a faithful servant and friend. He spent so much of his time telling his story and helping others with the struggles in their own lives. I am grateful for his willingness to bring light to the world.

“ Miles was one year younger than I am. My brother Mike and I sorta adopted Miles and had many, many good times together. All three of us got our hair cut at Cox's barbershop which was at the corner of Goodrich Blvd and Main Street. Miles had loads of friends and was loved by many. Miles it's been many day's since I've seen you but I love you old friend, you fought the good fight and it's time to transition to your heavenly home. Love you my friend.
