“Corky was a man with dignity. We work together at Brysons on Edgewood Avenue. He made me laugh, he made me feel safe, and we enjoyed each other's company. Will miss you love Katie workman.

“Corky had been coming to our pecan cracking business for years. He was one of my favorite people. He always had a good joke to tell to keep us laughing. He was so generous, he would pick up & crack 100's of pounds of pecans and just give them away. He was one of a kind and will be dearly missed. We love ya Corky RIP

“One can only imagine the fun going on in heaven...Corky is keeping everyone in stitches & holding his baby girl. The smiles, hugs, and giggles are plentiful. He will make everyone surrounding him feel alive, loved, and joyful. I can only wonder if Riley, my Dad, and Little Jim are fishing, hunting, or telling stories with him. We have been entertained by Corky's humor and joyful personality here on earth, now it's time for the big performance. I will always think of you, smile, and get this warmth in my heart. You are so loved...LaDonna

“ Dear Corky, you and your smile and sense of humor will be missed. I will miss your usual greeting, "You know we are the two best looking in the family." I'm sure most of your female family members received that greeting! Corky was one of my favorite "cousins" (actually my mom's cousin) and such fun to be around. I hope Mom was there to greet you at Heaven's gate! My condolences to Margaret and the rest of Corky's wonderful family! Annette 💕😊🙏

“ Uncle Corky was always so happy! Always made you smile! We used to go dancing at R&B Country and sometimes we would see Corky out there and he would always come up to me and kiss me on the cheek and ask me to dance. So much fun and such a good man! Will miss him dearly! My dad MOE has always said that Corky was a great man.

“ I remember the first time I met Corky. I'd gotten off the plane in Jacksonville to spend the week in Florida with Corky, Margaret, Donnie and Nadine. Eddie had told Corky all about me and we'd planned a fun week. I had these God awful Billy Bob teeth and we planned to play a joke on Corky and I'd wear them when he met me. We got off the plane, I had those snaggle teeth on and when Eddie introduced me to Corky, "Dad, this is Dee Dee, isn't she purdy!" Corky came at me with arms open wide and a big ol smile to give me a big hug and I grinned real big with those ugly teeth on. The look on his face when he saw those snaggle, stained Billy Bob teeth!!! He took a step back and his smile turned into a look of shock. For the first time ever, Corky Munson was speechless. We all died laughing and Corky looked really confused. I took the teeth out and smiled and winked at him and he just busted out laughing and gave me a giant hug and said, "Boy, I didn't know what to say. I thought you were purdy til I saw those teeth". For the rest of the trip, everywhere we went, he'd say, "Dee, put your Billy Bob teeth in", then he'd walk behind me, giggling at people's reactions. He got the biggest kick out of those Billy Bob teeth but then again, Corky got the biggest kick out of just about everyone! He was a people person and made everyone feel loved. He enjoyed life and adored his family and friends. We loved you more, Corky! 🥰

“ Oh how I'll always remember all the dock fishing trips, the many, many games of Yahtzee and Farkle and Corky saying, I think I have one more roll, even though it was his 4th or 5th, but it was Corky. I'll cherish the memories I have and smile at each and everyone of them. Wishing peace and love to all his family.

“ I would see Corky in Walmart and would come and give me a hug and kiss. Then he would say you are Dellene aren't you then he would say it doesn't really matter. Dellene McCullum
