“ Praying for Oma’s friends and family. Her life was full of happiness, joy, and blessings. From the time I was young, I remember going to visit her with my mother and she always had the sweetest and most welcoming smile. The greatest blessing she could of poured on my family was the leading she did with my mother to help her grow closer to the Lord. Oma lived a life of spreading Gods love and eventually baptized my mother, setting an example for all of us to follow.

I met Oma at Family Dollar Fairland...she was one of my favorite people. She always hugged my neck and said she loved me. She truly was 1 of the best ladies that I have ever met. I am honored to have gotten to know her. I'm so sorry for the loss of this fabulous lady. I pray for her family. I didnt know her children but they had to be special too with her being their Mom. Sending prayers to you all. She is singing with the angels.
