“ Almighty Father, eternal God, hear our prayers for Your son Orville C. Macklin, whom You have called from this life to Yourself. Grant him light, happiness, and peace. Let him pass in safety through the gates of death, and live forever with all Your saints in the light You promised to Abraham and to all his descendants in faith. Guard him from all harm and on that great day of resurrection and reward raise him up with all Your saints. Pardon his sins and give him eternal life in Your kingdom. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

“ I will never forget the annual 4th of July Macklin Reunions! Uncle Orville and Daddy razzing each other during the family volleyball games was only a small part of the comradely. There was much joy and love shared during those brief visits. I admired Uncle Orville's bigger-than-life honor to those veterans who faithfully served our nation. He will be truly missed. With loving thoughts, Sandy Taylor

“ I grew up next door to the Macklins. Orville (that is what we called him, not O.C) was larger than life to me. He worked at the BFG plant and was in great shape with a finely chiseled chest and arms from building tires. In the summer, before air conditioning all the neighbors sat on the porches and talked way into the night. While the adults visited we kids played in the yard. Orville brought in a huge off-road tire inner tube that he had inflated to about 3/4 and set it in his front yard. We had a contest each night to set the record for how far we could fly across the yard by being catapulted from that inner tube when he jumped on the other side. Once, after winning an aluminum boat in a raffle he outfitted it with a steering wheel and motor big enough to pull neighborhood kids on a homemade surfboard attached to the back of the boat. We roared up and down Spring River for hours on that surfboard and he just drove the boat and laughed as we fell off. I could go on and on with memories of Orville. He was quite a guy, and a big part of my fond childhood memories of our neighborhood. He was a WWII veteran of the Army Air Forces, being a crew member on an A-20 aircraft. He was part of the "Greatest Generation". R.I.P Orville Macklin.

Really wonderful childhood memories Tom. That was a great block. We only lived there a short time, next to the McNatts, but formed lifelong friendships with some great people!

I remember that inner tube! I would go over to my uncle Joe's to play with my cousin Tom. The neighborhood kids were always playing ball in the front yard from Tom's through the Macklin's, north to the corner. Orville was always right in the middle of everything. I'll never forget that big grin and infectious laugh. My sympathies are with all the Macklin "kids".
