“ My first pastorate was in North Miami and one of the friendliest people I met was Pat. She called me her Baptist friend and we had many delightful discussions. My wife Leah also became her good friend and worked at the Christian Bookstore under Pat's guidance. We consider her a light along our Christian path and send our love to Julie, Jason, and Becca...Heaven has gained another precious saint! John and Leah Carnagey

“ Today I was sitting at my laptop in England and went to the Miami news and was lead by the Lord and saw my sweet Pats news of her going to be with the Lord. Wow, for over 40 years she has been standing in the Gap for me and my life and was a major influence of my coming to healing and salvation. How I loved her and the kids, blessings to Julie and Jason. Because of her faith in Jesus I would have never become a pastor/missionary to India the past 26 yrs, husband of 20 yrs and father and grandfather. Thank you my sweet sister, I will always love you. See you soon. James Hetherington

“ Pat was the best. I had the joy of working with her at The Christian Bookstore during the summers while I was still in school. I learned so much from her. She has so many talents and has always been so good with all the people she comes in contact with. Words of wisdom, words of encouragement. What a blessing you were in my life Pat. :)

“ She was an encourager. A comfort to all and the giver of love to those whose path she crossed in this life. The Lord received a very special package this morning and I know that her spirit will be watching over her family awaiting the great reunion. She would want all to know the soon approaching return of our Savior for His Church. Do not allow any more time to pass without seeking the Lord and turning your life over to Him.

“ I am so sad to hear of the passing of my friend, she was the very first contact when I got my first computer we used to chat for ages about all kinds of thing. I have missed her over the last few months, and have suspected she was ill. She was a wonderful lady. Oh those chats! that went on for hours sometimes. She loved God and I have no doubt that she is with HIM now God bless her family who will miss her so very much

“ My memories of Pat from when I moved here to Miami,OK. I have many fond memories of past Christmases at her old house on 109-A street behind Miami News Record and next to Pizza Hut Express, til she and Julie moved to their present location. Their old house is gone now ,it burned down several years ago shortly after Pat and Julie moved.
