“Wherever a beautiful soul has been, there is a trail of beautiful memories. You all are in my thoughts and prayers.”

Momma & Aunt Tish came out to NH to visit Chet & I several years ago & we had a wonderful time. I think we covered the whole state & then some.

I'm also so thankful Momma & I were able to spend the day with her when I came home last summer. I was fortunate to spend the day with Corbin, Tishie, Richie, Carol, LeAnn & Momma. We had a short a visit with Peggy & Stephanie, too.

I just wanted to share my special memories with all of you & send you my love.

None of us were ready to say good-bye to Aunt Tishie, but this timing feels especially tough. Wishing all of my family comfort and strength for the days and weeks ahead.

Rexanne, Diana & David,

“A Mother is with us always, first in her lifetime, then forever in our memory.”

I found these pictures that Momma, (Aunt Pooky) has sent me over the years & thought everyone might like to see them.

You are all in our thoughts & prayers.

“ Granny Pat, she was my kids favorite adopted grandma. We used to live across the street from Pat and Lynn, when the kids were missing. We always knew they were at their house. Inside playing w their dog or out back helping Grandpa Lynn. Great times and memories for all of us. They both will be dearly missed.
