“ *Neva and Billy,
I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Your parents were such a role model for me, how I wanted to raise my children and how a marriage should be. Larry said he was at the Wyandotte reunion, that is the only one I have missed going with Larry and I am so sorry I didn't get to visit with him.*

I will always remember his grin and the way his eyes would lite up with mischief when he was teasing one of his children or that kid that kept coming around. Neva, you were my best friend throughout school and your parents were the best and most consistent adults in my life. I think of your family often, particularly on you birthday, with all the adventures and boy scouting we did.

I also remember how athletic he was, even running from Miami to Quapaw on his 60th birthday. I missed when they left Miami.

My thoughts and prayers are with you and Billy's families tonight.

This is dad lifting 380 lbs when he weighted 132 lbs. Dad put everything he had into what he did. When he had a heart attack that is called the widow maker that most people die of within minutes. But dad fought for a day and a half to stay with us till all of siblings and family made it in so he could see them and say goodbye.

Dad we love you so much and we are going to miss you. You was always there for me and anybody that needed anything. You taught me so much and showed me that if you put your mind and effort into it that you can do anything. You gave me advice and taught me so much. You will be greatly missed and have a place in my heart. I know you are with Jesus and your mom and dad and Deloris and other friends and relatives. So save a place for me I'll be joining you but I am not planning on it be to soon. Love you Dad Your Son Bill

“ I have very fond memories of this lovable hard-working man. Paul, Sr, Paul, Jr and I would spend hours splitting wood together for their families winter fires. My job (of course) was the easiest... I would sit at the splitter while Paul Jr would bring me logs to split. Once split, Paul Sr would load them up in a wheelbarrow to haul off and stack. I always marveled at how HIGH and HEAVY he would load the wheelbarrow. He never tired in the Oklahoma heat, but always complemented ME on being a hard worker. His love and devotion to his family was awe-inspiring. He will be greatly missed.
