

Pauline Mae North

August 18, 1940 - November 23, 2023

Pauline Mae North, 83, a resident of Skiatook, Oklahoma passed away on Thursday, November 23, 2023, at her home. Pauline was born on August 18, 1940, in Zinville, Oklahoma, to Alfred and Ruby Mae (Carr) Maute. Pauline graduated high school and later attended Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College, where she obtained her LPN. She married James Franklin North Sr. and together they would raise a beautiful family. After having children, Pauline decided to focus all her time on raising her seven children. She was very much a giver. She was mother to everyone. She also enjoyed doing puzzles and crosswords, canning vegetables, listening to music, and planning the Christmas party every year. Nothing gave Pauline happiness more than spending time with her family. She will always be known as a wonderful mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. Pauline always said that her children were blessings from God. Preceding Mrs. North in passing are her parents, Alfred and Ruby Mae Maute, husband, James Franklin North Sr., son, Charles David North, her granddaughter, Rebecca Rose North, and her brother Alfred Dean Maute.

Those left to share the beautiful memory of Mrs. North, are her children, James "Hank" North Jr., of Hooker, Oklahoma, daughters, Glenna Wardlaw and her husband, Billy, of Hooker, Oklahoma, Jamie Weaver and her husband Michael, of Fairland, Oklahoma, Peggy Sue Johnson and her husband, Brian, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Ruby Mae Mouser and her husband, Sparky, of Skiatook, Oklahoma, and Robin Miller and her husband Mike, of Lahoma, Oklahoma. Her siblings include Ray Maute, Opal Barr, Truman Maute, Gloria Maute, and Beverly Stepp. She is also survived by many grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren.

There will be a graveside service for Mrs. North at 2:00 PM, Tuesday, November 28, 2023, at the Sulfur Bend Cemetery in Fairland, Oklahoma under the care of Brown-Winters Funeral Home and Cremation Service in Miami.
