“ Darlene and I were in the fifth through eighth grades together in Fairland, and I remember her as a sweet, kind, very smart girl. She was one of those people you just never forget.

“ I am very saddened to learn of Darlene's passing. I remember her from Fairland Jr. High and High School. I was two years ahead of her, but she was in the same class as my sister, Margaret. I never knew her first name was Peggy. I did, however, know her to be a very kind and thoughtful person. My deepest sympathy to her family and friends.

“ A good friend, who due to geographical distance, was only able to see her at Christmas time here in Houston. Calm demeanor, good listener, could talk on any subject from sports to politics with an abundance of intellect.

“Darlene graduated from Fairland HS a year before me. The following year we frequently rode together for classes at NEO and socialized some as well. Since that time over 50 years ago, we’ve maintained contact and especially appreciated remembering one another on birthdays. It was just early last week that we chatted, shared news about common friends, and discussed a few political issues interspersed with plenty of thought and laughter. Rare for her, she shared health concerns and was eagerly anticipating a medical consultation this week that she hoped would bring her some relief.

Needless to say, I was surprised and very sorry to learn of her passing. I will miss our “opportunities to resolve the problems” of the world! :-) My thoughts to her cousins and friends who likewise will miss their time with my ‘understated’ friend. Thanks Darlene for those shared times...I’ll especially be thinking of you on December 4 as I promised to call on your day.

“ I simply want to share with Darlene's family and other friends what a truly, special friend Darlene was to me and my family. Darlene and I finished up court reporting school together in Tulsa and remained best of friends for 29 years. We also took many trips together.

She was an extremely kind and generous person. When she lived in Okmulgee for many years, and since I resided in OKC, she spent a great deal of time helping and being a true friend to my grandmother. She helped with her banking, going to the store and doctor, and even going out to play bingo. I traveled to Okmulgee on most weekends to visit my grandmother and Darlene.

In addition to the above, the three of us spent many wonderful hours playing cards (canasta being the specialty of the day) to dominoes. She and my grandmother had such a wicked sense of humor. When I would leave the table, they would stack the deck or the dominoes so I was unable to have a good hand to play with. To counter this, I would always threaten to take some Benadryl, which had a tendency to make me talk non-stop, which drove them bananas. It was hilarious.

Darlene and I took many road trips together. We both loved the ocean and Florida. And these are certainly memories I will always treasure. She especially loved sea turtles. Whenever I see a turtle, I always think of Darlene. I'm truly going to miss her coming to see me when I relocate to Sarasota, FL within a few months. We spoke often about her coming down to stay with me a while to get some relaxation from the stresses in her life.

The one truly remarkable trait that Darlene had that I would like everyone to know about is how truly empathetic she was. She was an absolute Godsend to me. I've been through a rough patch of depression this past year and Darlene - always without exception - would get me through some rough times. She was a very good listener and could really calm me down. She knew just how to coax me out of my funks. We spoke practically every night and sometimes we spoke for hours on end. I can honestly say if Darlene had not been there and been a wonderful support system for me, I would not be amongst the living. I will always be grateful for her support and non-judgmental ways with me.

These are only but a few things about Darlene that set her apart from so many other people. I could go on and on about the time we spent together. I consider myself extremely blessed to have had her in my life.

May the family and other friends accept my condolences on the loss of Darlene and know how very special she was.

Thanks Robin for sharing the wonderful memories for our "understated" friend...I can just see her and your grandmother having the best time with those dominoes! And then came the little smile...

Robin that was a wonderful tribute and no one could describe Darlene any better. I did not hear about Darlene until a couple of days ago and am so sorry and feel so bad that I was not there for the service. We kept in touch through Christmas cards and letters and a few phone calls in the year, meaning to get together all the time. We should never put things off. I'll always remember our trip to New Orleans. You left your shoe bag and had to borrow a pair from Darlene and stuff tissue in the toe. What fun we had! But that's what she did, make everything fun. I will truly miss her. I know it is a great loss for you, as I know how close you were. My thoughts and prayers are with you and her other friends and family.
