

Ramona D Howe

September 7, 1937 - October 20, 2018

Ramona D. Howe, 81 year old, longtime Tulsa area resident passed away October 20, 2018.

Ramona was born on September 7, 1937 in Miami, Oklahoma to Abner Elmer Taylor and Goldie Magdalene Christmas Taylor. After high school she graduated from the Miami Business School. Ramona had a very giving soul and had a ministry with her sister Joy where they visited local nursing homes to preform manicures and pass out Puff Kleenex tissues to the residents. She also loved the John 3:16 mission and was instrumental in her church outreach to feed the homeless. She helped local families whose homes had burned to the ground. She loved the bible and it was that love that led her to become a Sunday School Teacher and a Vacation Bible School Teacher. She attended Ladies Ministries and women's bible Study groups. Ramona was a prayer warrior for thousands. The family remembers many times when the house was quiet finding Ramona in her bedroom on her knees in prayer praying for others. Her prayer life was most humble and memorable. She had a presence about her that was sweet and mild natured. Her smile was evident that she embraced a lifetime of happiness.

Ramona was preceded in death by her husband, Charles Wesley Howe, and two brothers, Abner Lee Taylor and James Abner Taylor.

Ramona is survived by a son, Michael Wesley Howe, a daughter Darla Jean Howe-Pierce, two sisters Lavella Esteleen Taylor Thomas Carlton, and Joyce Janelle Taylor Moore Hampton, grandchildren Lyndsey Mare Howe Counce and Taylor Mackenzie Peirce, and a great grandchild Amiliya Marie Coonce. Graveside services for Ramona will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Friday, October 26, 2018 at Ottawa Tribe Cemetery outside of Miami, Oklahoma.
