“ My barber for a long time. Always had some advice for me. I loved talking with him about life and sometimes just having a good laugh. It was hard to find a new barber when he retired. Lol After I started teaching, he finally convinced me to change haircuts. No more buzz cut with it bic razored on the sides. “You need a more mature haircut now that your teaching.” I still wear that same cut to this day. Love you Red. I can’t wait to see you again in heaven!!

He was always smiling and had a great sense of humor. He was a member of the Baptist Church and was very active in his community. He was a good man and we will miss him very much. Randy was one of the finest men I ever met. It was my privilege to meet him when I worked with Sheryl at Gayle Edmondson's CPA office. He was always smiling, kind, funny and a joy to be around. I loved the stories about his mules - especially Jake. My deepest sympathy to Sheryl and family.
