“ A long time ago we were able to spend some wonderful times with Raymond and his family. In the few instances I've seen him since he moved from the area, the friendship picked up where it left off. I'm so sorry for your loss. I'll always remember him with the smile and twinkle in his eyes that this picture so well displays.

“ My husband Lynn has told me many times how this wonderful man open the doors to his home and family when he didn't have a place to stay as a boy growing up. He taught my husband what giving was all about. In our eyes you have truly earned your wings.
