

Robert Jahue Bowers

October 30, 1927 - July 12, 2013

After a lengthy illness, Robert J. Bowers, 85, of Fairland, passed away at his home, with his loving family by his side, on Friday, July 12th, 2013. Robert was born Oct. 30th, 1927, to William and Bertie (Harris) Bowers in Hopewell, TX. He served his country during WWII in the Philippines. Robert was a member of the Fairland Assembly of God Church. He was a truck driver for over 56 years and was owner/operator for 28 years. After retiring, he went to work w/his son, James. for 6 years at Fairland Ready Mix. Robert loved his family dearly, and he enjoyed going to Branson. He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers, Andrew and J.E. (Don) Bowers, one son, Larry Bowers, one grandson, Steven Bowers. Robert is survived by his wife of 56 years, Martha (Whiteley) Bowers; son, James Bowers and wife, Kathy of Fairland; grandchildren, Jerod Bowers and wife, Jamie, of Dallas, TX; Casey Bowers and wife, Kendra; Kortley Bowers, all of Fairland, and her fiance; Jacob Srigley; and 2 great-grandsons, Caine and Caiden Bowers; one brother, Leroy Bowers and wife, Marie, of Paris, TX; two sisters, Flora West of Ft. Worth, TX and Mary Sprabary of Rogers, AR; and numerous nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be Monday, July 15th, 2013 at 10:00 a.m. at Fairland Assembly of God Church, under the direction of Adcock Funeral Home. Services will be conducted by Rev. Harold Brannon and Rev. Jackie Crafton, Jr. A visitation with the family will be Sunday from 4:00 to 6:00 at Adcock Funeral Home in Fairland. Pallbearers will be Jerod Bowers, Casey Bowers, Kortley Bowers, Jacob Srigley, Jackie Whiteley and Doug Whiteley.

Honorary pallbearers will be Harold Hickam, Kenneth Blalack, Jack Manning, David Justice, Jim Henshaw.