

Robert "Bob" Lewis Cline

April 14, 1929 - December 29, 2020

Robert Lewis Cline (Bob) was born April 14, 1929 in Branchville, Maryland, to Raymond and Elsie Cline.

He married Juanita Periman June 17, 1951. they were married for 69 years. They began their married life in Michigan where Bob proudly served in the U.S. Navy. After a brief time in Tulsa, they made Miami their hometown where they raised their 4 children.

Bob was a retired B.F. Goodrich employee. After retirement is when he began the 'work' that brought him pleasure. Fishing and hunting were hobbies that he enjoyed throughout his life and ones he passed on to his sons. Bob took an interest in pecan trees several years ago by planting and producing a pecan grove on his property. He started with just a pecan and watched it grow into a seedling then a tree. Bob grafted each tree and could identify each tree and tell you the characteristics of each pecan. Also, Bob took an interest in honey bees. He had several hives of his own and happily delivered honey to some of his favorite people. Bob became a mentor to several both for bees and pecan trees. Bob was always willing to share his knowledge and to help you get started.

Bob also volunteered---a lot. He was a Salvation Army Kettle ringer, Salvation Army volunteer and First United Methodist Church volunteer. He loved cooking eggs for the Methodist Men's Breakfast. Bob was quite a blood donor, 28 gallons. He was honored by being inducted into the American Red Cross Hall of Fame. Bob was most proud of his involvement with the American Legion where he was a member of the 40 & 8 and served in many capacities. He was a member of the Funeral Detail, which honored veterans with their Military Rites throughout the area. He and the 'crew' attended hundreds of funerals and were proud to do so.

Bob was happiest when he was outside. It didn't matter what he was doing, he just wanted to be out. He often said, "Every day is a good day, some days are just better than others".

Bob took great pride in his grandchildren and great grandchildren. His eyes would light up when the great grandchildren would visit. He was often known for lovingly tormenting them!

Bob is survived by his wife Juanita, children Steve (Ginny) Cline, Ronnie (Patty) Cline, David (Ilene) Cline and Trish (Ed) Goodman. Grandchildren Justin (Crystal) Cline, Tyler (Moriah) Cline, Lucas (Sadie) Goodman, Mika (Robert) Land, Ryan Goodman, Chad (Dr. Lauren) Cline, Emily (Johnny) Waechter, 10 great grandchildren and a brother, George (Carolyn) Cline as well as extended family members and friends. Bob was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Raymond Cline.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests a donation to the Miami First United Methodist Church

“ Bob was one of the most amazing and kind men I have ever known. He had a passion for life and exploration that few of us will ever obtain. If you ever had the pleasure of meeting him You are aware of his lasting impression. All of his finest qualities were definitely imbued into his children and grandchildren. He created a legacy that will live on in them and their future generations for many years to come.

Love and condolences from the Robinsons to the Clines.

“ My family lives across the street from the Cline's all through my childhood. I loved to watch Bob in his garage making fishing weights. He was always careful not to let me too close. Ronnie and David were my close friends playing out in the street. Sending love and prayers to the family.
