

Robin R. Williams

December 18, 1961 - November 26, 2022

On November 26th, Fairland Oklahoma resident, Robin Rena Williams passed from medical complications surrounded by her family. Robin was born December 18th, 1961 to James Barnett (JB) and Barbara Vanatta in Miami, Oklahoma. In 1980, she graduated from Fairland high school and in February of the following year married the love of her life, Jebb Williams. They would go on to spend the next 41 years building a beautiful life and family together. Robin spent her entire life devoted to serving others. She was active in the community, youth 4-H and FFA organizations, and worked for over 15 years in the Fairland Public School System. She was known for her selflessness and was always willing to provide a helping hand or a hot meal to those in need. However, nothing brought Robin more pride and joy than her family. In 1982, Jebb and Robin welcomed their eldest son, Kyle into the world. She learned quickly, her calling in life was to be mother. She birthed two more sons, Aaron and Galen, and adopted Josh Roseberry and cared for him as one of her own. As much as she loved being a mother, being a granny carried a very special place in her heart. She adored her grandchildren and was an integral part in their young lives.

Robin is loved by many and will be missed by all.

Robin was preceded in death by her father, JB. She is survived by her husband, Jebb Williams- Fairland, Oklahoma. Her sons, Kyle Williams and wife Nichole-Fairland, Oklahoma; Aaron Williams and wife Katrina- Bluejacket, Oklahoma; Galen Williams and wife Konni- Seguin, Texas; and Josh Roseberry- San Diego, California (active military). Her grandchildren, Brock, Kenzie, Tucker, and Tristan. Her mother, Barbara Vanatta- Fairland, Oklahoma. Siblings, Sheryl and Michael Woods and Billy Vanatta both of Fairland, Oklahoma.

“ Robin will be missed beyond measure. She was the most kindhearted lady who truly cared for others. She and Jebb brought joy into my life through fostering. I met the most beautiful young lady at their home and was able to share in the joys with Robin over the years. She was family to a young lady and to all the children in her life. Robin made a difference to many. Both Skylar and Ollie will miss you dearly. We had just talked about what the new year holds and all of the adventures we wanted to do. Love you sweet friend.
