“ My husband Tom and I were so sorry to hear of Roger's passing. We were among a group of friends that "hung out" in the early 70's. Roger was always fun to be around and had a kind heart. Please know we are praying for your family at this time of loss. Although we haven't seen him for a very long time we feel a loss as well. May God comfort you and your family. Sincerely Tom and Patti Brodrick Spring, TX.

Margaret, I knew Roger in the early 70s when I got out of the service and lived in Miami, working at Goodrich, and finishing school at Pittsburg. Roger was my good friend then, and although I haven't seen him since Patti and I were married in 1974, I always considered him a good friend and a really good honorable man.
