“ I remember her mother baby sitting us pre-school age. We were the same age and always played together. Once in awhile I would remember those memories as the years went by. I always liked her even as the years went by and we lost touch. Seeing this gives me a strange feeling inside, a loss of part of my youth. Rest in peace Shelia, I have many fond memories of our youth. I always liked you, even if I didn't say.
